HOW TO USE THIS TEXTBOOK

Each session follows a consistent speaking-first structure.

- Vocabulary: learn high-frequency words connected to the session topic.
- Formal vs Natural: compare polite/formal wording with common conversational English.
- Grammar in Context: practise the target grammar through usable sentences.
- Everyday Conversation: use short question-and-answer exchanges for speaking practice.
- Session Review: check whether you can perform the stated communication goals.

TEACHER'S DELIVERY GUIDE

- Model each sentence aloud before asking learners to repeat.
- Move from controlled repetition to pair practice and then free speaking.
- Encourage contractions and natural rhythm where appropriate.
- Correct grammar without interrupting every sentence; prioritize intelligibility first.
- Recycle vocabulary from previous sessions in warm-up questions.
- Use the final assessment in Session 24 to measure progress across grammar, fluency and interaction.

EVERYDAY CONVERSATION

Sample Presentation Opening

Good morning, everyone. Today I'd like to talk about the importance of learning English. First, English helps us communicate with people from different backgrounds. Second, it can create better educational and professional opportunities. For example, English is widely used in schools, workplaces, travel and technology. In my opinion, regular speaking practice is one of the best ways to improve. Finally, I would like to say that confidence develops through practice. Thank you for listening. Do you have any questions?
